

School Board Recognition Month Suggested Activities

February is School Board Recognition Month. Please join VSBA in honoring school board members' commitment to ensuring all children have success in school.

Here are some suggestions successfully used by other districts to make School Board Appreciation Month special for your school board members.

- Recognize board members at school sporting events
- Have student newspapers interview and profile board members
- Encourage parent organizations and student councils to sponsor an appreciation breakfast for the school board
- Use marquees and message boards to thank board members for their service
- Print a copy of the state proclamation of School Board Recognition Month in district newsletters
- Write a personal letter thanking board members to be published in district newsletters, local newspapers, and on the district website
- Present certificates of appreciation to board members at your January meeting (templates available at vtsba.org/recognition)
- Send a press release (template available at vtsba.org/recognition)
- Plan a reception at the January board meeting. Invite students, local community members, media, local service groups, etc.
- Display board appreciation posters in schools and community businesses (template available at vtsba.org/appreciation)
- Sponsor a student poster or essay contest to thank school board members for their dedication and hard work. Share the results in local banks, post offices, and libraries. Send a photograph of the winner(s) to the local newspaper.
- Create social media posts to recognize the work of school board members
- Create activity passes to all board members allowing them to attend all district activities (sports events, concerts, plays, etc.) at no charge
